CASCADES RESTAURANT RECEIVES BEST EUROPEAN RESTAURANT FROM NOW BALI

Chef Nic Vanderbeeken (Belgium) receiving the BBRBCA

Ubud, BALI (January 8th 2015) - Cascades Restaurant is pleased to announce that it is the recipient of the prestigious Bali Best Restaurant, Bar & Café Awards for Best European Restaurant in Bali.

Bali Best Restaurant, Bar & Café Awards

A very prestigious award held by NOW! Bali Magazine for the first time selected 17 category winners from a total of 108 participating outlets. On November 13th 2014 at Bali International Convention Centre in Nusa Dua, Bali the awards ceremony took place, inviting the best of Bali's hospitality industry members. CasCades proved it's quality by becoming the Best European Restaurant in the awards.

About Chef Nic Vanderbeeken

Chef Nic Vanderbeeken offers eclectic, health-conscious, yet supremely elegant cuisine that is as spectacular as CasCades and its natural surroundings. He has 15 years of experience working in leading restaurants serving food in the French, Belgian, Dutch, Italian, and Asian styles, which serve him well designing dishes in a country such as Bali with its diverse culinary influences.

Most recently he was the owner of Bistro Biggles Wevelgem, the fine dining establishment at a private airport in Belgium.

Among the highly regarded chefs with whom Chef Vanderbeeken has worked are Wout Bru of Chez Bru, Michaël Vrijmoed (sous-chef) of Hof Van cleve, Rudy Devolder of 't Convent, David Bertolozzi of Berto, and Michelle Richard of Citronelle.

He has also served as executive chef for Belgian restaurant week in Washington, DC, appeared on several television shows, and been featured or noted in a number of journals and magazines such as Look-out, Bistronomie, Ché, Michelin Guide, and Gault-millau. Previous postings include Concept Bistronomy at Evita, Restaurant Petit-Cabaret (now Grand Cabaret) in Nieuwpoort, and Restaurant Berto (David Bertolozzi) Waregem.
